known a single individual in all Paris I am just now a little lonesome. The French are not as sympathetic a people as the Germans and one does not so easily make acquaintances with them. Liebig gave me a letter to Prof Pelouze but I have not yet seen him. I have been twice to the academy and have already seen some of the lions of Paris. Cutter's successor here is Woodman who was in his employ. He makes for all the Americans who come to Paris and has rigged me out to my perfect satisfaction. Old Fox is not dead, but has given [illegible] to another [illegible] "English spoken" on his door and who provides all the Americans with understandings at shortest notice. Paris is now chock full of John Bulls who are returning from Rome. Some of the female Bulls are quite good looking but I think the French women still rather than the Germans. This information is for the special benefit of Laura & the Druleps. My books and apparatus were all send off from Giessen on the 8th you will receive them I think either by the end of April or in May. I had them all insured. There are 3 boxes the largest contains Apparatus the other 2 books. My balances is in a smaller box inside of the larger one I should like to have it (the inside box) taken out and placed in a perfectly dry place but not much offered. The books of course may be unpacked and the girls may find something to interest them. Tell Laura I am really sorry about her dictionary but I was so pressed for money on leaving Giessen that I could not get either that or some other things I intended for her & Eliza. I shall however get the dictionary here as there is an excellent German bookstore here. I am anxious about Ofo and want you to be particular to let me know all about him. I suppose that you will be surprised at my writing to Giessen. I should not have done so had he not when I left Hamburg offered most kindly to assist me in any way in his power and had I not been really in very serious difficulty in Giessen. In regard to a certain person mentioned in your letter of the 1st of this month (which came safe a few days ago via Giessen) I hope he will or no account ask hastily but I would rather converse with him on the subject than write. Love to all at home - Yours ever Wolcott

My direction is No 5 Rue du Dauphin - Paris. I write to Lucy tomorrow - tell me
