ible giving dates for every thing, & if there are records in family bibles, copies should be made. Please to agree with the person you employ what compensation he requires & I will pay him.

Mr Hornsby can give a good deal of information as to who people were & the lines of descent.

So much for Gibbses - You had better give the above bodily to whoever you set to work - & let him be as quick as he can. [illegible] as long as the moral law & if any of the ancient families of Newport who rejoice in the relationship are helpful, I will lend them a copy. Present me to all your family. I wish I was sitting on Castle Hill Rocks or Gravesend with you & the Domine - This weather to bite this weather - They would if they were as hungry as I am - So farewell until you come down here to eat some oysters - Always yours

Geo Gibbs

If you see Howland with you stir him up.
