Enclosure; genealogy.

New-Haven, Jan. 4. 1848.

My Dear Sir,

I have copied the Genealogy of Robert M. Gibbes, and return your transcript. I thank you for your attention.

~~You see [illegible] R. M. Gibbes is now clearly made out.~~ He had omitted in his tabular view John G. b. 1696. married Mary Woodward; d. 1764. (son of Robert Gibbes, Lt. Gov. and first Emigrant to S. Car. and father of Robert Gibbes, who was born in 1732 and died 1796).

I enclose a memorandum concerning John Gibbs of Barbadoes. He might have been living in 1696 the date of the will, and yet not living in 1702 when his brother Henry is styled an only son.

I enclose also a notice of Simon Gibbes in 1559.

The original genealogy sent to you by Sir George S. Gibbes, I do not recollect to have seen. The copy which I have is in your hand-writing. Should you not find the original, I will transcribe it with pleasure.

Yrs. with respect,

Josiah W. Gibbs.

George Gibbs, Esq.
New York.
