be of very considerable advantage - and may assist materially in placing you rapidly forward -. You will live at the Expence of the Establishment - so far as is customary. beyond that such sums as you may need for your expences you will draw for - which Amount will be considered as part of your Salaries -

Your Expences from here to Canton I wish you to keep an accurate account of, and upon your arrival at Canton to lay them before Messrs. W Bros who will have my opinion in regard to them - they will reimburse you for all Expences made on account of the House - And if you shew that you have actively employed your time in advancing the interests of Messrs W Bros - they will take the fact fully into
