of the deer are fine and the dew claws or little hoofs of the deer, and the [illegible] of primroses or pine cones. This last is very dirty but [illegible] I mean the unscented as like to the hand. Specimens of ropes and twines and a number of baskets the broad ovals are worked in figures are worn on the head the flat ones are used to winnow [illegible] from the chaff. The close deep ones are both and which they cook the acorn porridge by putting in hot stones. The awl [illegible] and the [illegible] tools The [illegible] is a guess as which hand the [illegible] to the one which it [illegible] the whole being put coiled up in a bit of a bunch of hay & torn in two. an [illegible] of singing & [illegible] keep up. I will give you a clearer account of this when I send you my notes. I will also [illegible] a number of bold [illegible] with [illegible] once [illegible] books. a deal of head of bear & an Elk horn in the velvet. I could not get any skins except at an [illegible] price. By this way I hear you and [illegible] you get this. I hope you like winter [illegible] I trust the [illegible] got out safe & have sent by express &c. I trust the [illegible] got out safe & have sent by express &c. the state a dozen Redwood [illegible] and a dozen young Salmon tree plants. I'll [illegible] to buy [illegible] and the Redwood are to be planted in a row [illegible]

000404