amount for which we claim. I am glad mother has found material for a pretty muff out of the Indian fur rugs, but cant imagine what has become of the Sea otter skin which would have made two or three. However I shall be able to pick up something here in future, but that skin was a beauty - Keep all the [illegible] I obtain such trophies that you get as by and bye, I scheme to have a little museum of them. I must hold off now as I shall write to the butchers by this mail - Love to all as usual
