A little below Speaking of the Nahchess, strike out the words "heads in Mt Rainier" ~~and in the subsequent words "Mt Rainier may~~" and insert in lieu thereof, "heads in the main divide, its southern or principal coma rising near a very noticeable mountain, exhibiting on its summit an extinct crater." ~~and "This river may~~ Also strike out on the next line the words "Mt Rainier

~~[illegible] "this river may" &c~~

just below, after the words "in the southern side of the Nahchess", add "~~near the crossing of the trail~~ not far from its mouth"

And a little further on ~~in Speaking of the peaks at the head of the main Yak river to the northward~~ And a little further on, in Speaking of the higher peaks to the northward of the main Yakama, instead of "granite or gneiss" say of "basalt or conglomerate similar to that on the Yakama Nahchess.
