to think I shall never again receive his cordial greeting. I also to think of the loss he will be to those who are near & dear. His was a really pure & noble nature. There will be more affectionate respect felt for him, than is common. I indeed all of us, sympathize with you all in this truly great bereavement.

My love to Eliza & the Children

Affly J