New York July 6/69

Dear Lucius

Your letter of 24th June reached us today, we were of course glad to hear of your safe arrival in Paris, tho' I knew thro' Mr. Marshison that the ship had made a quick passage, I hardly expected to hear directly so soon. I have absolutely nothing to write about business the works having closed, no new orders are coming in, & everything is very quiet. Mother left for Cambridge on Thursday the 1st with Wolcott, George had come on to see her, & arrange where she would go afterwards, & left for Washington. Friday night, pur poses staying one day, & then goes to Binghampton to write & wait till Mother is ready for him, where she left, I think her mind was pretty well made up to go to "Albburgh Springs"
