The change in the weather has made me much more comfortable though I understand the health of the town is affected by it. However I think the blue pill that I took when the first hot spell commenced will carry me through without further medicine.

I sent Alfred's last to Lucius - Give my love to the Dutchers and all the young ones - I drove out to see Lizzie Patters on the other day and had a romp on the grass with her.

George