Dearest Mother

Lucius as I suppose you know came on with me last night and pushed for Chelsea this morning. I got Wright's Telegram to day - I had misunderstood his former one - thought he was to meet me here -

This morning I arranged with Smith and the Governor about the payment of the Bank debt - It is to be done to-morrow, when the check & deed will be exchanged - Smith has telegraphed for Mr Paine to come down as Belmont wishes ~~to~~ him to approve the deed - It will cover the bank debt and leave $750 or thereabouts over. I have seen the general statement of the Adams accounts but
