We are all waiting for the denouement which is to take place on Tuesday — The Democrats — Hancock men here — talk loudly of the tremendous uprising of the people if Johnson goes back a martyr.

With love to all

George

An old gentleman, a Louisiana Frenchman, and a lawyer of note, whom I meet frequently with his sons, wishes to call upon you, Lamar, & D'Oremieulx. He is a very accomplished & pleasant person & I would like to have you remember his name — Louis Janin. He is at present established here, but has occasion often to go to New York —
