My Dear Mother—

It has been over a week now since I have had a chance to write you, for although I had time one evening, the materials to write with were not to be had. You will understand now this was when I tell you what I have been doing this last week. I think I wrote you last from Leamington.

After leaving Leamington we went directly to London, staying there only over Sunday to rest. On the Saturday we arrived there I visited Westminster abbey, the Houses of Parliament, and the National Gallery of Paintings. On Monday I took a trip to Windsor and went over the Castle. Monday afternoon we, that is, Cousins Virgy and Theo and Mrs. Tyaquine cousin Virgy's old governess, & myself
