being generally marked, and ~~well known~~ bounding boundaries well known to the citizens. The results so far as ~~The~~ Obtained will ~~now~~ be continued in order.

The route for the purpose of discussion as well as for construction, may be divided into 7 sections as follows:

1st From Fort Vancouver to the Cathlapootl, or Lewes' River, 20 miles

2d From the Cathlapootl to the Cowlitz, 30 miles.

3d From ~~the~~ the mouth of Cowlitz to the Cowlitz Landing

4th From the Landing to the Nawaukum Prairie

5th From Nawaukum Prairie to Ford's prairie, beyond the Skookum Chuck.

6th From Ford Prairie to the Nisqually and

7th From the Nisqually river to Fort Steilacoom.

~~The military post of Fort Vancouver is situated~~ on the a terrace about half a mile from the Columbia river, and elevated 100 feet above it, the ground in front rising gradually down to a lower, or bottom, a portion of which is at the ~~extreme~~ further reason overflowed. The reservation contains one square mile, with a frontage of upon the water & extending back the rear being covered with fir timber. ~~The front of the~~ woods

~~was~~

000602