be with me for about a week and then will return to Ems leaving me to jog on by myself. I will not return but will go after visiting the Alps, to Paris.

I have changed my steamer and will leave Liverpool for home on the 21st of Sept. on the Baltic of the White Star line.

The trip to-day up the Rhine was beautiful, and the scenery fully equaled my expectations. There is not a castle on quite every hill, but I believe there is one every quarter of a mile. I will write you more about my trip when I get to our next halting place.

To-morrow night we expect to spend in the famous watering-place of Baden-Baden. I do want very much to see the place. We will stay there only one night, and then will leave for the fall of the Rhine, passing through the Black Forest.

I cannot write any more to-night as we have had a long day's journey and I am quite ready for bed. I have just written (?) these few lines to let you know where I am. I will send papers from the places we pass through.

Good bye now love to all, Your Aff. Son

George.
