him such a post, yet I have no doubt he made some arrangement with Lincoln for an interview with the President — from all the country he said of that miserable Fox —

Burnside is to go on the Southern Expedition about I learn arrived in high spirits — Mean while Hallock Beaufort Dupont will have the command of the transports &c — the troops for the Expedition will come from Washington and be shipped from here — They should comprise the flower of the army for discipline courage and dash rather than make amends for numbers — I understood at the A.G. Genl. office that the expedition would sail to day — Some troops may come here, the 9th Massachusetts regiment Dragoons were on their way to Fort Hamilton on Saturday last; I met them myself — Some men may be taken at Annapolis, where we know there is a large force —

To day we have reports of Rhode Island flying Southern and I hope it may prove true — A well posted person in Louisville Kentucky writes to us on Nov 6 — "Troops are being thrown into Ky very fast by both sides — and much faster than the majority of folks think — those who ought to know say the Confederates have 50,000 men in Ky and a Northerner told me to day
