wise - The writer adds that the forces are in excellent with great superiority on both sides and that there is "talk of" soon ahead - I am glad that Anderson is superseded - I do not believe he has any heart in the struggle and he believes too much in the efficacy of prayer or faith without works to suit me -

Our position it seems to me is rapidly improving - I broke to heaven that McClellan will be moving before the time arrives for winter quarters - I wish that Rosecrans could be reinforced for a movement on Lynchburg - I think by day and dream by night of Lynchburg. Lynchburg, Virginia -

Recruiting is going on here with vigor, and I am sorry to say Hackwell's Guard is being depleted any one who can pass inspection is mustered. The City security is stopped but squads and companies from the Country sweep by every day, and every day some of the recruits are stolen and sold half a dozen times over -

Morgan will go on with the muster even after the 25.000 are supplied and I hear that the cannel men intend enlisting largely when the cannels close -
