was your Grandmother's express intention to leave two pieces to one of her children as she was careful to take just to all.
I hope to see you when you come on but shall not be in N. Y. at the op-ointment till the second week of Nov. and have not decided when I shall return to Washington — So if you are in N. Y. about the 15th do drop in and let me see you. I am glad that L. is devoting himself to improvement, and with his diligence, I doubt not he will gain rapidly.
It is to be hoped however that his love of ladies' society will not disturb his studies, and that he will avoid any entanglement as wisely as you seem to have done, until he is more settled and of riper judgment. As he has a happy home now, it is to be hoped that he will not be easily led to roll away temptations and bypaths of pleasure with young men will probably engross him.
