and look after war as a Broadstreet rather than a depositor of the Treasury. I am glad they do well for there are a great many of them —

I should think a shot or two would have brought the Alabamas to their duty in double quick.

You are quite right in my opinion as to the change from the regular to the Volunteer organization but I understand Thomas has rolled the movement over twice already — he might take all the old Fogies out and shoot them. They will never "stop by any other process —

I hope my fears of the Hatteras affair will not be realized — I considered an attack of that kind will followed up as a note of alarm to the whole Southern Coast to fortify — the expedition must be about arrived at Ile aux Cat Beaufort S. Carolina in my opinion, at Brunswick Ga in that vicinity — 30 miles from Cape Henry to Brunswick 1 mile per hour would land the fleet to day barring accidents —

If the expedition fails I see no reason to
