will at their schools. Wolcott applies himself heartily and has had no punishment yet. which is rare at the Grammar school.

Alfred attends Mr. Adams' school formerly from Boston. — I am happy here in neighbourhood and see Mrs. Kirby Stevens daily. Mrs. Morris frequently. — her youngest daughter marries soon (and goes to Illinois.) Mr. Stark of Cambridge. I am sorry I cannot yet do any thing to help you ~~yet~~ in fixing the Robinsons. rents are enormous. markets high and board doubled in the city. can they not be made to remove to New Port? I cannot get far enough out of town to look out for them and they cannot go up into the country to see for themselves. I will call the moment I can spare. — I have overworked myself and have lame back — Mrs. Russel & M. Pell have called.

I have no letters from Sarah. what do you hear of her plans. W.C.G. has been here and tells me that you expect Wm. out in July remember he must come here and we hope it will be your wish to meet him. we have room for all. — I have given George a back basement room and it is ready for him when he recovers. the front is dining room & study for the boys. my old furniture makes me comfortable with no great addition and I have all my beds. — love to Mary. & ushers.
