James Gibbs, youngest son of James Gibbs of Frome Somersetshire England, married Martha Gredding on ~~who died~~ the 25th July 1735, who died in Bristol 8th May 1740 aged 27. Her grave is in the old burying ground on the stone these lines

"Death thou hast conquered me
I by thy darts am slain
But Christ has conquered thee
And I shall live again"

—"—

Then hasten on the hour
When I shall wake & sing
Oh, Death, where is thy power!
Oh, grave, where is thy sting!

X X X X X X

Will of Isaac Waldron at Bristol dated June 16th 1740 gives to his daughter Martha Gibbs (probably wife of Geo Gibbs) one half of his house & land