Dear Mother

As I learn from Alfred that you are still at Cambridge, I write to you there, and in case you have left, I pray can take this as to herself & send it back to you afterwards.

Gen Schenck is to bring in his amended Army bill on Tuesday, it is said definitively - The bill is very objectionable & a motion will be made to substitute the Senate Bill in its place. Alfred's chance of promotion at this session will depend upon the passage of this, as I dont think that
