part Snaitcht

IV Kwil-kách-kack-shin, or Pierre Jean, lives at S'ho-neet-kwu, the falls. He is half Okinákane. An old man & of very little account.

V Kwil-kwill-hus. In the valley near the Che-lows-kan. Half Pend Oreille, and his band are intermixed with them. 74 souls.

Snaitcht. Chiefs, Che-soo-itsh ("Growing worn out") or Gregoire; & Sil-too-teh-Che-soo-lehw, or André. Total numbers about 350. Live round the Columbia Lakes. Maj. Lugrubel adds a 3d. Chief, François.

Sin-hu-méhn (People that wear red paint on the Cheeks), or Spokanes as they are usually called. There are four bands, according to George Montour.

I Skai-sit-lin-ish, the lowest band, at the fishery below the mouth of Chem-kehn. Chief Kwu-til'-ku-kó-sim, "Big star." has 50 men or 250 souls. He his one of the two principal chiefs of the whole tribe.

II Sin-hu-mann. Their name the same as that of the tribe at large. Pó-lote-kan their Chief is the other leading man. Garry belongs to this band and resigned in favor of Polotekan. S'Hal-hált, "The Day" is sub chief. 40 men or 200 souls.

III Sin-soo-esh-tin, "Creek tribe", on the little Spokane. No chief of consequence. They are a small band, say 20 men or 100 souls.

IV [illegible] and on [illegible] Chief [illegible] um-hehtsh. 25 men or 125 souls.

S'chits-oo-i or Coeur d'Alênes.

Sin-chim-kéhns ~ The Lower band. Chiefs Stel-lowm, or Thunder, was formerly the Chief. He is now old and blind. Sil-tus, a young man is head Chief at present. Kwin-moo-séet-sa "Blanket puller" sub chief has also a band, of 25 men, Sin-sléh-hum.

Skoot-ló-tish, the Upper band. Kwil-kwilt-hus, Chief. This name is not exactly understood. Kwil-kwil signifies red, but the termination may be derived in various ways.

There is perhaps another band, of which Montour knows nothing certain.

Pend Oreilles.

S'l-kat-koom-s'chée, Lake tribe. The Upper Pend Oreilles. Tuml-hutl-see or Alexandre is head Chief not only of this but of the other band also. His name signifies "He that has neither horse nor dog". He lives on the Upper
