Dear Austin,

I have yours with the enclosure of yesterday - which I carried at Riggs' - formerly Corcoran & Riggs, & I suppose Corcoran has still some little money there - Enclosed you will find a note for the amount - I had to use one of their blanks as I had no other -

I will give up all malt, & try the Gettysburg water tonight I have not much faith in it - I have been drinking Congress water lately instead of the mixed Vichy & Kissingen that Austin recommends so highly -

I have raised a rumpus in the Post Office about that envelope, and
