Paris Sept 15th 71.

My Dear Mother—

You will I suppose be surprised to hear that I am still in Paris. I expected myself to have left for London yesterday morning but at the last moment I received a telegram from Cousin Theo from Switzerland saying that he would like to have me remain here until he saw me. He and Cousin Virgy arrived last evening, and so I shall probably get off tomorrow. I am sorry I could not leave Paris sooner (not that
