of one of this branch dated early in the 16th century. The Will itself, I have not examined.

If you care to pursue the matter & are prepared to go to the necessary expense, I shall be happy to undertake it for you.

As a guarantee of good-faith, I would beg to refer you to Mr. John S. Sargent, 145 E. Monroe St, Chicago, Ill., who, I feel sure, will kindly answer any inquiry you may desire to make.

Yours truly

B. Beetham
