now living. We came here to speak more of the holidays.
My brother has found the negative of the front of Sandwich house; the negative of the other side, which we think, the prettier view of the two he cannot find.
The name of the photographer is J. W. Pach, he was formerly at 841 Broadway, he or his successors are still in the business at present & school boys are often taken by Pach. A city directory would give Pach's address, but the negative can be sent to any photographer you and Dr. Gibbs prefer.
My brother says he will gladly have the negative carefully packed & send it either to you or to any photographer you select.
The additions to the house were made by the nuns who occupied it as a convent for Sisters of the Sacred Heart.
We did not know what order had taken Sandwich.
We should be delighted to see Dr. Gibbs' memorial volume when it is ready.
It will be a most interesting book. My brother suggests that you have more than half a dozen of the photos taken; printing then off is not expensive.
We suppose you would
