want both views in each book. One will want a copy enough for your friend. And then if you will deposit the Memorial in each of our principal libraries, such as the Boston Library the N. Y. Historical, the N. Y.
Society &c, you will insure the preservation of the work & confer a great favor on the trustees of these Libraries.
When I return to the city in a day or two, I will enquire where Cash knows Dr Sat work, as he would take the most interest in renewing his former photographic Believe me dear Mrs Tuckerman, very cordially yours
John Livingston Delafield.
