Shews that our Indian ports have met the approval of a large number of friends - leaving out for the present those Consignments - We do open for much from San Francisco, & think we shall be able to do better than many of the old houses in the trade - as they have many opposing interests to their case - to whom they must give all the profits they can control - We on the other hand give more profits to third parties than any house in China, - Our arrangements in having a house at Shanghai Canton and Singapore afford us facilities for securing profits to which Exclusive Ports - which no other house possesses - if we cannot load her at Shanghai - put on board all we can obtain for Canton & load her there & there or to Singapore at the latter port we have obtained information from Bombay, Madras, Calcutta - Penang Batavia & Manila - if nothing favorable offers