offers for a double voyage home to the States or Europe then must be freighting between some of these ports. until the season for home freights arrives — and frequently a very profitable freight is offered from Singapore to China in the clearing of ice — which costs in the first place but little — and should therefore be purchased on Ships account — and often is sold in China at a handsome profit — I wish you to write me from every port as you write — just as freely as you would to your Brother Prescott —, this I shall expect. And shall look upon the neglect of it as unmercantile.
I wish for full information upon all topics — not only regarding mercantile operations — but regarding the ship — which not at all publicly I shall hear after you depart many months —, upon your Brother, who desires, that I am disposed to grant an unusual connection as far as it can be profitably done —, Wishing you a very pleasant trip — I remain Your Brother A Prescott
