gone to Haarlaem to practise medicine.
I have not seen Henry Wolcott but have heard him so kindly spoken of by strangers and friends that I hope you will find him one.
We have had a visit from Bowes who denies his love. — Laura had a musicale morning here and about 40 friends. I got up from my bed and took to it again. It was very successful and was a gift from Mr. Schaffenburg of the services of those Artists who gave the quartettes at the Hope Chapel.
I shall send you some music with your books — I hope you made some sketches on the voyage. We have such accounts of the state of things in California that I hope you will not have been detained.
And Sarah is still feeble. — Laura send you a kiss. and Brother many.
I must not forget that you find Mrs. Irving came to the matinee and kind you brother Bless you my child.