Frank Bros thinks his business prohibits except to marry writes me to announce his marriage to take place the 6th of next month to all his relations and the near ones in especial. He is much shorn now but I suppose he looks quite as well as to his aunt. At any rate I do so for him. And am happy to say that all that we hear is favorable to Miss Hosmer. Beauty, refinement and good religious character. all except money. What Frank is fortune to make.
And that honorably.

Imitate it is better so.
To broaden and elevate his character — he is not so to the marriage. It costs too much and had better go into his outfit —

I hope you will have a good nurse. And that if possible your house will be exempt from visitors. I have always found that a dog in sickness If any one can I have a promise to let me know how you all are. Avoid the kind. All well here
