Dear Westcott

I have yours of the 2d. Suckley brought on the blanks all right but could not find the photographs. I wanted to give Kennicott one and also to send one to my old friend John Green at Portland. If you can find them I wish you would envelope them & leave them for Kennicott at the Metropolitan Hotel. He leaves me on Sunday - Put a separate sheet round the one for Green & address it to him. I send you by Kennicott a package of Brass Rim black sand that I found among my specimens.

I paid Baird the $105 for you -

Raymond's article, "Wanted a Policy", of day before yesterday & that of Saturday, following it up, are just what was wanted & create a great deal of talk here. The administration are in a bustle - I don't think it Seward's fault, but Lincoln is a d—d fool enough to devote his whole time to the office seekers instead of to the country - He is not "man enough". and that is the plain truth. Cameron too seems incapable in his department. By the way he got a cursing up hill & down dale yesterday from a friend of mine who wanted to transact some busi—
